

CENTER FOR SERVICE AND LEARNING

Impact Report— JRL 101

Dr. Elizabeth Oppe with Kaitlyn Lopez as service-learning TA

Spring 2017

Hours served: 1,259

Students participating: 120

Impact value to the community: $25,762

Students learned:

- Adaptability
- Importance of civic engagement
- Time management skills
- Organizational skills
- Compassion and empathy

“Volunteering makes you give back to society and work for something other than yourself. This experience opened my eyes to want to do more for society and others. I appreciate this experience and I will be doing more volunteering in the future.”

—Autumn Schultz at Up All Night in the Mountainlair

“Not only did I get to meet some great people and get out of my comfort zone and do something I would never done, but I also got to help the community, even if it was in a small way.”

—Jeff Tobia at Falling Run Trail

“This made me want to contribute more concerning community service after doing this for service learning; seeing how important it is to people’s lives.”

Mery Diaz-Ipanaque at Ronald McDonald House

“I was able to find enjoyment, and a sense of accomplishment in completing my service learning project.”

John Bonham at The Terrace Room at Stalnaker Hall