

Impact Report— LDR 335

Dr. Lisa DeFrank-Cole

Spring 2017

Hours served: 160

Community organizations impacted: 1

Students participating: 13

Impact value to the community: $3,357

Students learned:

- How different leadership approaches play out in real situations
- Developed a broader worldview and had some preconceived notions changed
- Improved small group communication skills
- About the challenges involved in running a nonprofit
- Observed a female leader as a role model

Community impact:

- Raised awareness of the Appalachian Prison Book Project (APBP)
- Helped share impact by developing a scrapbook of thank you letters the organization has received
- Developed a flyer to promote the program more widely to potential female participants
- Raised funds for APBP
- Gathered book donations for APBP

*This report was compiled by the Center for Service and Learning using verified service hours logged in iServe, the value of volunteer time from independentsector.org and student and community statements taken from written evaluations and verbal presentations.