

SERVICE-LEARNING CONTRACT (GROUP OR INDIVIDUAL)

STUDENTS AND PARTNERS: READ ALL INSTRUCTIONS BEFORE COMPLETING!

The Service-Learning Contract should:

1. Be completed during the initial meeting by both the student(s) and person at the partner organization who will be directly supervising them (site supervisor).
2. Be as specific as possible and will serve as a binding agreement between the student(s) and the partner organization for the duration of the placement.
3. Assist the student(s) and partner organization in understanding the learning objectives for the course related to the service-learning assignment.
4. Clarify the activities in which the student(s) will be involved at the service site in relation to the learning objectives and the needs of the organization in a way that ensures that both understand the respective responsibilities, roles, and expectations for the service-learning placement.

Contract Meeting: Students are to schedule a meeting with their Partner as soon as possible.

It is MANDATORY that all students attend (if this is a group placement). At this meeting students should:

1. Be prepared to schedule the days/times that you are available for service-learning for the entirety of the placement. Bring your class schedule, work schedule, planner, etc.
2. Bring a copy of the Service-Learning Course Information Sheet and the course syllabus.
3. Be prepared to discuss all of your ideas, concerns, and questions about the your placement. The goal of this meeting is to collaborate with your partner on a plan and to document it in this contract.
4. Be responsible for filling out this contract form during the initial meeting and ensuring that all students in the group and the partner agree to its terms before it's signed and submitted to the CS&L.
