

CENTER FOR SERVICE AND LEARNING

Impact Report— SRVL 495

Alexis McMillen

Spring 2017

Hours served: 880

Impact value to the community: $18,462

Students participating: 21

Community organizations impacted: 12

Students learned:

- Adaptability
- Importance of civic engagement
- Time management skills
- Organizational skills
- Compassion and empathy
- To step out of their comfort zones

Community impact:

- Developed tools for group to use to improve organization
- Improved event logistical processes
- Fundraised for events
- Increased awareness of services provided
- Increased capacity for teaching for more one-on-one interactions.

"You can go feed people soup, but if you don't know why you're doing it or what it really does it does not affect you as much."

-Meals on Wheels Volunteer

This student put smiles of faces of any athlete she came in contact with. You could tell she was happy to be there and our athletes really enjoyed her helping out.

-Kim Walls, SteppingStones