Impact Report— COMM 112
Ryan Thompson
Fall 2017

Hours served: 1100
Students participating: 69

Community organizations impacted: 16
Impact value to the community: $23,078

Students learned:
- Time management
- How communication theories apply to reality
- Teamwork skills
- The variety of ways service can be performed
- How to work effectively with people of varying abilities
- How to tell a story that portrays a specific intentional message

Community impact:
- Provided indirect support (fundraising, organization, marketing, etc)
- Help care for rescued Animals. Including Cleaning cages, refresh water/food and grooming.
- Created new greenspace for the Falling Run Trail
- Worked to prepare and serve food for family at the Rosenbaum Family House.
- Mentored middle school youth about the importance of education.
- Set up, walked and cleaned at the Walk to End Alzheimer's.

“The group did a nice job fitting into their roles and were flexible, as they did different tasks each time they came”
—Silas Childs, WVU Evansdale Greenhouse

“They were truly an amazing group of students! They handled everything professionally with open, honest communication.”
—Jillian Zangari, Rosenbaum Family House

“This was such a big help! This benefit this year has raised the largest amount of money for us since they started! We had a wonderful amount of items brought back to the store to benefit our clients!”
—Amanda Ejimofor, Christian Help

This report was compiled by the Center for Service and Learning using verified service hours logged in iServe, the value of volunteer time from independentsector.org and student and community statements taken from written evaluations and verbal presentations.